

Learning Outcome Statements

The candidate should be able to:

- calculate and interpret the expected value, variance, standard deviation, covariances, and correlations of portfolio returns
- calculate and interpret the covariance and correlation of portfolio returns using a joint probability function for returns
- define shortfall risk, calculate the safety-first ratio, and identify an optimal portfolio using Roy's safety-first criterion